1. Definitions:

“You” or “Your” shall mean the copyright owner or the individual authorized by the copyright owner that is entering into this Agreement with Infosys

“Contribution” shall mean any original work of authorship, including any modifications or additions to an existing work, that is intentionally submitted by You to Infosys for inclusion in, or documentation of, any of the products owned or managed by Infosys (“Work”). For purposes of this definition, “submitted” means any form of electronic, verbal, or written communication sent to Infosys or its representatives, including but not limited to communication or electronic mailing lists, source code control systems, and issue tracking systems that are managed by, or on behalf of, Infosys for the purpose of discussing and improving the Work, but excluding communication that is conspicuously marked or otherwise designated in writing by You as “Not a Contribution.”

2. Grant of Copyright License:

Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, You hereby grant Infosys and recipients of software distributed by Infosys, a perpetual, worldwide, non-exclusive, no-charge, royalty-free, irrevocable copyright license to reproduce, prepare derivative works of, publicly display, publicly perform, sublicense, and distribute Your Contributions and such derivative works under any license and without any restrictions.

3. Grant of Patent License:

Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, You hereby grant to Infosys and to recipients of software distributed by Infosys a perpetual, worldwide, non-exclusive, no-charge, royalty-free, irrevocable (except as stated in this Section) patent license to make, have made, use, offer to sell, sell, import, and otherwise transfer the Work under any license and without any restrictions. The patent license You grant to Infosys and the recipients of the software under this Section applies only to those patent claims licensable by You that are necessarily infringed by Your Contribution(s) alone or by combination of Your Contribution(s) with the Work to which such Contribution(s) was submitted. If any entity institutes a patent litigation against You or any other entity (including a cross-claim or counterclaim in a lawsuit) alleging that Your Contribution, or the Work to which You have contributed, constitutes direct or contributory patent infringement, any patent licenses granted to that entity under this Agreement for that Contribution or Work shall terminate as of the date such litigation is filed.

4. Grant of License:

You represent that You are legally entitled to grant the licenses under this Agreement.

Contributor License Agreement

If Your employer(s) has rights to intellectual property that You create, You represent that You have received appropriate permission(s) to make the Contributions on behalf of that employer, that Your employer has waived such rights for Your Contributions, or authorized You to execute this Agreement.

5. Original Work:

You represent that each of Your Contributions is Your original works of authorship. You represent that to Your knowledge, no other person claims, or has the right to claim, any right in any intellectual property right related to Your Contributions.

You also represent that You are not legally obligated, whether by entering into an agreement or otherwise, in any way that conflicts with the terms of this Agreement.

You represent that Your Contribution submissions include complete details of any third-party license or other restriction (including, but not limited to, related patents and trademarks) of which You are personally aware and which are associated with any part of Your Contributions.

6. Support:

You Don't Have an Obligation to Provide Support for Your Contributions

You are not expected to provide support for Your Contributions, except to the extent You desire to provide support. You may provide support for free, for a fee, or not at all.
